Gleanings.

Price of EVANGELIST from March 1st, to end of year $1.25.

Five conversions in Brother Summers meeting at Pleasant Hill, Ohio, on Feb. 27.

Can you not get a subscriber for the EVANGELIST from now to end of year at $1.25.

Bro. R. R. Teeter is assisting Brother Shively in a protracted meeting at Ross-ville, Ind.

You can donate the EVANGELIST to any friend from March 1st, to end of the year for 90 cents.

The EVANGELIST family was kindly entertained by Brother Dr. E. J. Worst last Thursday.

Bro. I. M. Murray has been confined to his bed for a few days with tonsillitis. He has our sympathy in his affliction.

Brother Rittgers is holding a ten day's meeting for the Brethren of the Bracken congregation, so says Brother R. K. Binkley.

The Progressive Dunkards closed their protracted meeting on Wednesday night. It has been in progress in the Baptist church for a week.

At Somerest, Pa., two farmers are dead, ten or twelve are seriously sick and fifty more are suffering from the effects of eating poisoned meat at a sale held on the 22, ult., in Queemahoning township.

Rev. J. I. Hall will preach at Bethlehem the first Sunday of each month. His subject next Sunday will be "Complaining People." Text—Lamentations, 3:39—Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?

On Wednesday afternoon Elder E. B. Shaver baptized by triune immersion Mr. John Thompson and Miss Daisy Bowman, whose conversions were the result of meetings at Bethlehem, the new church near Dayton. The additions were 20, of which 17 have been immersed.—Bridge Water (Va.) Herald.

At our services in the college 25th ult., we had the pleasure of meeting for the first time Bro. Shoemaker and sister Bilhimer, two members of the Ashland City church.

Sister Brubaker has placed us under obligations for a large supply of good things for the table. God help us to prove worthy of the kindness, and bestow upon the sister the blessing of "a cheerful giver."

REV. S. H. BASHOR'S SERMONS.—Subjects for next Sunday are: 11 a. m. at Enon, "Life and Character of King David." At the Waterloo College chapel, 7:15 p. m. "Waterloo as It is and as It Should Be." You are invited to hear both.—Waterloo (Iowa) Daily Courier.

Bro. A. Hayes, of Johnstown, Pa., orders tracts suitable for distribution at a mission point and also donates the paper to a sister who is deprived of church privileges and who desires an interest in the prayers of God's people.

New subscribers will have to begin with number 10. All back numbers are exhausted. We shall be very glad to exchange with any subscribers who have numbers 2, 5 and 9 in good condition double their price in tracts.

Bro. Haskins has been holding one of the most successful revivals at Warsaw, Ind., that has ever been held in the Brethren church, a full report of which we hope to have for our next paper. From Warsaw, Bro. Haskins will come to Ashland to assist us in a revival effort at the College.

Brother S. H. Love, EVANGELIST for Md., Va., and W. Va., writes that his meetings are resulting in many conversions. He promises a full report soon. He is also making an effort to introduce the EVANGELIST in every family and sends us quite a list of subscribers as the fruits of his labor.

The LaGrippe still clung to us, and obliged us to withdraw our appointment for revival meetings this week. We are much, very much improved now, however, and confidently expect to proceed with the meetings next week whether Bro. Haskins is here or not. We should very much like to meet the entire Ashland membership at our Bible Student's Prayer-meeting next Friday evening at 7:30 to make important arrangements for the revival.

We have on the hook several excellent articles for the sister's department.

Sister Laura Teeter a former compositor in this office, is now located at Dublin, Ind., and orders the EVANGELIST sent to her. Success to you, Laura.

Are you thinking about the conference to be held at Ashland next August? We want and expect a large turn out. We can give you good accommodations in every way. Only let us know long in advance that you are coming. We would like to know how many young people's societies will send representatives. It is not too early to think and talk about this.

Rev S. H. Bashor has received an urgent request from his denomination at Philadelphia, to go there and conduct a series of revival services. The matter of his going lies with his congregations here and at Enon, who will report next Sunday. Rev. Bashor preached some in Philadelphia while he was yet a theological student.—Waterloo, (Iowa) Daily Courier.

HERINGTON, KAN., Feb. 26, '94.

BRO. HARRISON. I will give $2.00 (two) to Bro. Holsinger's account. Let me know when you want the money.

Yours Frat.,

N. C. Nielsen.

This brother gave $20 before for this purpose. If only all would manifest the same interest how very soon our Brotherhood would stand in a creditable relation on this question.

Brethren J. T. Kolb and family, I. M. Murray, Rittenhouse and family did some hard work last week in cleaning the College chapel, setting up stoves and polishing them.—We shall now have a very pleasant place to hold our meetings. The surroundings are congenial, and no one with faith the size of a mustard seed can doubt but that if pastor and members here do their duty a rich ingathering will be the result.

Bro. and sister Ulrich, of Udell, Iowa, when renewing their subscription to EVANGELIST added $3.50 as a gift to the editor as a substantial expression of sympathy. Such acts of kindness do give a flavor to Christian fellowship that makes one feel as if he had some of Heaven here. May Want never enter your door, dear brother and sister, and may you never have to look upon any of your children with the anxiety that we have had for dear little Homer.
